

Contemporary and Historical Archaeology in Theory

Categories : archaeological news

Date : November 22, 2003

Conference - Bristol UK - encounters between past and present

CHAT - Contemporary and Historical Archaeology in Theory - great new project starting in a conference that wants archaeologists to think - archaeology merging more with the study of contemporary material culture.

As long as it is realized that materiality only makes sense in terms of what it isn't supposed to be - immaterial - ie all culture is material.

I talked about how my notion of the archaeology has profound implications for the way we write history.